

Third Enlarged Meeting of Eighth Central Military Commission of WPK Convened

Pyongyang, June 22 (KCNA) -- The Third Enlarged Meeting of the Eighth Central Military Commission of the Workers' Party of Korea (WPK) was convened on June 21.

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the WPK and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, attended the meeting.

Present at the meeting are members of the Central Military Commission of the WPK. Officials of the relevant departments of the Party Central Committee, members of the executive committee of the Korean People's Army (KPA) Committee of the WPK, commanding officers of the Ministry of National Defence and military and political commanding officers of the large combined units of the KPA are on hand as observers.

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the WPK and chairman of the Central Military Commission of the WPK, presided over the meeting.

The meeting will analyze and review the work system, order and actual conditions of the WPK Central Military Commission and the provincial, city and county Party military commissions and discuss major tasks for further enhancing the function and role of the military commissions at all levels. It will also review the overall work for national defence in the first half of the year, and put on its agenda the issues of confirming the crucial and urgent tasks to build up national defence and thoroughly implementing the military line and key defence policies of the Party.

The meeting will review the military and political activities of the Ministry of National Defence, the General Staff of the KPA, the KPA Committee of the WPK, commanding officers, staff sections and political departments of the KPA units at all levels, and the Party organizations of the armed forces organs, before deciding on the important strategic and tactical tasks to be fulfilled by the KPA.

The Central Military Commission of the WPK started the discussion on the presented agenda items. -0-

www.kcna.kp (Juche111.6.22.)

Second-day Sitting of Third Enlarged Meeting of Eighth Central Military Commission of WPK Held

Pyongyang, June 23 (KCNA) -- The second-day sitting of the Third Enlarged Meeting of the Eighth Central Military Commission of the Workers' Party of Korea (WPK) was held on June 22.

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the WPK and chairman of the Central Military Commission of the WPK, guided the meeting.

The second-day sitting continued the discussion on the major agenda items presented to the enlarged meeting.

It discussed the work of additionally confirming the operation duties of the frontline units of the Korean People's Army (KPA) and modifying the operation plans, according to the Party's military and strategic plan, and the issues related to reorganization of key military organizational formations.

Guided by the vice-chairmen of the Central Military Commission of the WPK, the General Staff of the KPA studied and discussed the relevant issues, compiled the results and drew up an important document.

The KPA General Staff reported to the Central Military Commission of the WPK the results of the discussion on the key issues and preparation of the document.

Expressing the strategic view and decision of the Party Central Committee adopting important military measures to enhance the operational capabilities of the frontline units, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un stressed the importance of this work and clarified all the principles, tasks and ways for implementing it.

The meeting reconfirmed the tasks to be fulfilled by different sectors to thoroughly implement the Party's revolutionary army-building line and strategic policies.

The Central Military Commission of the WPK continues its discussion on the presented agenda items. -0-

www.kcna.kp (Juche111.6.23.)